

For the People, Animals & Climate of Tomorrow

By 2030, 100% of NAMI members will be reporting on all metrics

Today* Companies representing 90% (by volume) of meat sold in the U.S. submitted data

82% of NAMI Executive Board

63% of members with at least 300 employees

470 North American establishments are covered by data submitted

*Data updated October 2023

Optimizing contributions to healthy land, air, water

By 2030, the Meat Institute aims that members will have an approved Science-Based Target to reduce emissions in line with the Paris Climate Agreement

Today 14 Meat Institute general members, plus 10 supplier/allied members, have set or publicly committed to set targets verified by the Science-Based Targets Initiative

66% of reporting establishments are covered by a company commitment to set scope 1 and 2 emissions reduction goals

62% of reporting establishments are covered by a company commitment to set scope 3 emissions reduction goals.

Providing the best animal care & raising healthy animals

By 2025, 100% of Meat Institute members who handle animals will pass third-party animal transport and handling audits, and 100% of members will require all suppliers to implement mandatory employee training and follow species-specific standards for animal care

Today 86% of establishments that handle live animals have a comprehensive animal welfare program

73% of reporting establishments that handle live animals pass third-party animal handling audits, at minimum annually

Supporting a diverse workforce & ensuring safe workspaces

We will further reduce workplace injuries by 50% by 2030 (2019 baseline), on top of the 75% reduction achieved from 1999 to 2019

Today 92% of establishments have a written worker safety program in place 91% of establishments have safety on-boarding and continuing safety training

Producing safe food without exception

Food safety is not a target; it is our culture

Today 93% of establishments have a multidisciplinary food safety team 93% of establishments have embedded food safety into the company culture through communications and initiatives

Providing a variety of high-quality protein for balanced diets

Working with the U.S. Department of Agriculture and Feeding America, we will measure and help fill the protein gap by 2025 to ensure families in need have enough high-quality protein

Today 60% of reporting companies make donations to food banks 47% of reporting companies make donations to other charities

Meat Institute members donate tens of millions of dollars and meals to food banks and charities across the country every year

